REPORT OF THE IQAC COORDINATOR DURING THE SESSION 2022-23

Our next session of 2022-23 started with Extension Activities in order to reach the society by distributing Educational Accessories and Story Books among the children of a nearby school named Netaji Subhas F. P. School, Ashoknagar on 4th August 2022. Keeping in mind the scarcity of Blood, and with due respect to the forthcoming Independence Day, a Blood Donation Camp was organized by the IQAC on 8th August 2022. On that very day a programme named 'Tomar Asime' was also organized by the Cultural Committee and Department of Music in collaboration with IQAC in remembrance of the Death Anniversary of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore. For future employability of the students a Career Counselling Programme was organized by the Career Counselling Cell where the State Government Organization 'Utkarsha Bangla' shared their proposals of Internship and Job Prospects before the students on 16th September 2022. Orientation Programme for newly admitted students of the session 2022-23 was organized as usual by the Academic Sub Committee on 19th September 2022. This day also brought us to the glorifying moment by securing 8th position of the College in Youth Parliament Competition participated by our students who were specially guided by the members of our IQAC. A Gender Sensitization Programme on Cyber Crime was organized by the Anti Sexual Harassment Cell and Grievance Cell on 21st September 2022 where Officers from W.B. Police (Barasat) delivered their valuable talks and shared their experiences to the students. In commemoration of the Birth Anniversary of Vidyasagar the IQAC had arranged for an Extempore Speech Competition for the students to aware them on the contribution of Vidyasagar towards education on 24th September 2022. On 27th September 2022 Anti Ragging Cell of our College conducted a Class Awareness Programme for the students. The College also arranged a programme on Government Credit Card Scheme for awarding the students to avail the benefits of the Government Scheme for smooth running of their education on 17th October 2022. Department of Political Science organized a holistic step by arranging a Quiz and Extempore Speech Competition to celebrate Constitution Day to aware the students about the day's importance on 26th November 2022. A 22 day long Lecture Series from 1st December 2022 to 22nd December 2022 with external experts were organized by the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication where the College IQAC supported the Department by all means. Considering the importance of the best practice system of our Institution, almost all the departments both Honours and General organized Study Tours/Excursions in collaboration with IQAC, which were started from 1st December 2022 and ended on 4th January 2023. An Awareness Programme was arranged by the SC-ST-Minority Cell of the College to aware the students about the benefit and process of applying different types of Government Scholarships in order to avail those for their studentship on 3rd December 2022. As per circular of the Government of India, an Essay Competition on 'Bharatiya Bhasha Dibas' was organized by the Department of Bengali on 9th December 2022. Annual Prize Distribution Ceremony was organized by the IQAC to encourage the students in the field of General Educational and Sports as usual on 5th January 2023. Department of Education published a Wall Magazine 'Vivek Chetana' to observe the 160th Birthday of Swami Vivekananda on 11th January 2023 where the students of the department explored their hidden talents, moulded with touch and elegance of artistry. On 18th January 2023 the Committee for Extension Activities again stepped forward for donating Blankets to the needy villagers of Bhandargacha, Ashoknagar. We celebrated 126th Birth Anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose on 23rd January 2023 by organizing Netaji Memorial Speech and a notable speech on 'Netaji and The Student-Youth Society' was presented by Dr. Emanul Haque, Associate Professor, Department of Bengali, Goenka College of Arts and Commerce.

They are active to protect environment, greenery, health and cleanliness of the campus and outside locality, campaign for NSS ideology and their most notable contribution is to adopt a village for providing basic education and health treatment. MOUs with different colleges and organizations were done for the betterment of the college. [College signed nine Memorandum of understanding (MOU) with nearby colleges - 1. 29/03/2023 - Sarajini Naidu College, 2. 31/03/2023 - Dumdum Matijhil College, 3. 13/04/2023 - Dumdum Matijhil Rabindra Mahavidyalaya, 4. 24/04/2023 - RBC College evening, 5. 27/04/2023 - Dinabandhu Mahavidyalaya, BONGAON, 6. 04/05/2023 - Taki Government College, 7. 11/05/2023 - Bhanga Mahavidyalaya, 8. 15/05/2023 - Nahata Jogendra Nath Mondal Smriti Mahavidyalaya, 9. 20/05/2023 - Sree Chaitanya Mahavidyalaya] Keeping in mind the divergent category of the students from the EWS, we are successful to provide them a campus free of ragging and any kind of harassment. Though we have constrained funding sources, yet we have tried to provide assistance to our students from economically backward section by helping them with concession of either in college fees or in university fees as they can carry on their studies uninterruptedly. Five Certificate Courses as value-added courses successfully organised during 2022-23 session

(1. Communicative English and Personality Development, 2. BCC (Basic Computer Course), 3. Natya Sanglap : Ek Shailpi, Pracheta, 4. Basic Employability Skills, 5. Ethnopoetics: The Poetry relates Culture Dimensions of Humanity) The IQAC has given due importance to various Faculty Development Programmes including the CAS Promotions of the incumbent in time. The IQAC sympathetically handled the issues of our staffs like Maternity Leave, Childcare Leave etc.

In spite of better infrastructure and any kind of augmentation thereof, we were able to take some positive steps towards next NAAC Assessment. In fact, dearth of fund is a burning issue to us for taking proper initiatives as per recommendations of the NAAC Peer Team. Hope, the availability of Government funds will help us to reach our destiny. I'm thankful to my super active enthusiastic team members and committee members for their endless endeavours. I'm also thankful to our TIC for his kind co-operation with the IQAC.

Thanking you all and hope best for the new IQAC Team.
