The Department of Education in collaboration with IQAC of Netaji Satabarshiki Mahavidyalaya organized a one Day State Level seminar cum Workshop on “Mental Health Literacy” on 10th May, 2022 from 12 noon to 3 pm at the college Seminar Room. The resource person was Dr. Sreemoyee Tarafdar, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, West Bengal State University and Consultant Clinical Psychologist. Dr. Sudhanath Chattopadhyay, Principal, Netaji Satabarshiki Mahavidyalaya inaugurated the programme and delivered a short speech on Mental Health and its relevance in present day context. This was followed by a brief speech by the IQAC coordinator, Dr. Papri Chakrabarti. Then the introductory speech was given by Dr. Moutusi Basak, Librarian, NSM. The entire programme was deftly moderated by Dr. Shree Chatterjee, convener of the said seminar cum workshop. Prof. Tarafdar delivered a comprehensive presentation entitled “Mental Health Literacy”. She illuminated the audience with various information related to mental health and also oriented them about different strategies to keep a positive mental state. The programme was mainly organized to create awareness among students who are facing various stress and emotional problems and to maintain a positive mental health through hands-on education. She also suggested in her speech how street theater can be a way to maintain mental health and various mental health strategies that we can apply in our daily lives to build a better future. The resource person also advised the audience to practice these strategies in everyday life. The programme was vibrant with active participation and interaction with the teachers and students. The valedictory speech was delivered by Dr. Antara Chowdhury, Assistant Professor, Department of Bengali. The resource person was able to answer all the queries of the teachers and students with great spontaneity and competence. Later she conducted a session with students where students talked about their personal problems. Both students and teachers benefited from this session and became aware of how to maintain positive mental health by reducing stress and emotional problems. The entire programme was a huge success as the students were able to learn to solve real life problems through in-depth & insightful discussion of the resource person.

Celebration of Yoga Day

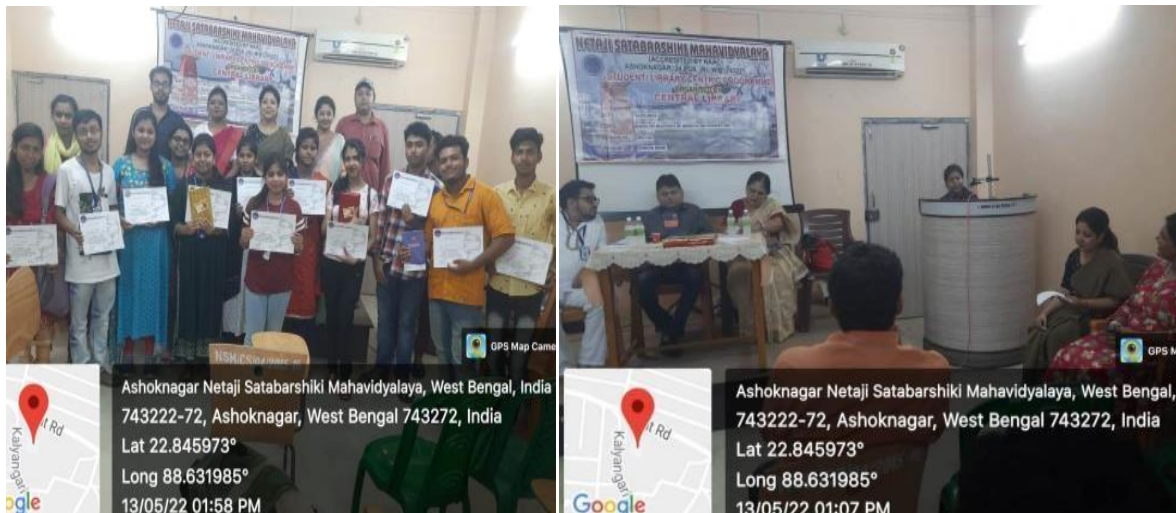

Driven by enthusiasm and the motivation to thrive in a society which is healthy, both physically and mentally, the International Yoga Day is observed every year on June 21 to raise awareness about this ancient practice and to celebrate the physical and spiritual prowess that yoga has brought to the world. Yoga is a practice which plays an important role in relaxing the mind and body and boosting people's immune system. On 21st June 2022, Netaji Satabarshiki Mahavidyalaya, celebrated International Yoga Day. It was attended by faculty and Students of the college with great enthusiasm. In consonance with warm up exercises various sitting and standing asanas were practiced & performed by the students. The importance of these asanas' was explained simultaneously. The celebration continued with the speech of our Honorable Principal, Dr. Sudhanath Chattopadhyay. He encouraged students to practice yoga regularly to remain fit and improve concentration. All Faculties, Staff and students learned the importance of Yoga in their life & how to maintain the harmony between body and mind. The students discussed the importance of yoga and also exhibited yoga postures. International Yoga Day celebrations ended with a huge success under the supervision of the teacher Tania Parvin, Department of Physical Education. The programme ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Dipesh Chowdhury, HoD of Physical Education.

Report of debate competition

One day Debate Competition Programme was held on 13th May 2022. It was organized by Central Library on “ইন্টারনেটের যুগে বইয়ের প্রাসঙ্গিকতা”/ “Relevance of Books in Internet Era”. Our respected Principal Sir, Dr. Sudhanath Chattopadhyay inaugurated the programme with his welcome address. Smt. Anwasha Dasgupta, Assistant Prof. (Dept of Political Science) of our collage anchored the programme. To begin with, each participant spoke their mind on the significance of books in e-book era. Unsurprisingly, this led to a wide spectrum of contrasting views. Points presented by students were accepted by the spectators with cheers and claps. Arguments were made and roved. Twelve Honours students from all the semesters have participated in the debate. Three senior Faculty members, Sri Anindya Dey, Associate Prof. of Sociology, Sri Milinda Majumdar, Associate Prof. of Dept of Political Science and Dr. Pabri Chakrabarti, Assistant Prof. of Dept of Music and IQAC Co-coordinator of our collage had judged the participants. Finally, prizes (1st and 2nd Position for and against the motion) and certificates were distributed to all the participants. Dr. Moutusi Basak, convener of Library Committee and the organizer (organized the programme with full support of the entire library committee members) of the competition concluded the programme with vote of thanks.

The entire session was proficiently led by Dr. Bidisha Mahato, Assistant Professor of Department of Bengali. The whole programme was organised and telecast via Zoom platform as well as through You Tube live streaming. We had used social media platforms like Facebook, WhatsApp, etc. in order to disseminate the news of this webinar. Quite a number of people joined through the institutional you tube channel for the webinar across West Bengal. A feedback form was also provided to the participants after the session in order to collect their opinion about the webinar. The participants included students, teachers and librarians. E-certificates were issued to the participants after getting feedback from them.

Gender Sensitization Programme

International Women's day: Gender Equity today for a sustainable tomorrow

On 8th March, 2022 the Cultural Committee of Netaji Satabarshiki Mahavidyalaya in collaboration with the IQAC of the college organized a programme to commemorate International Women's Day at 12 noon at the G4 room of the college. The programme was inaugurated through enkindling the lamp by the honorable principal of the college, Dr. Sudhanath Chattopadhyay who also delivered a short speech on how every life is shaped by a woman who is the source of creation. Women empowerment is now gradually becoming a clichéd term as women are on the top of fields which were erstwhile considered male dominated. He spoke on how we should remember the greatness of women and human beings in general everyday and celebrate that through our actions. This was followed by an inspirational speech by Dr. Papri Chakrabarti, the IQAC coordinator of the college, in her simple yet powerful style citing the crux of the importance of the day. Dr. Shree Chatterjee delivered a mellifluous musical performance paying tribute to the great woman, Late Mangeshkar who will be ever alive through her art. Smt. Manashi Ghosh Dastidar, the faculty of the Music department, delivered musical performances paying tribute to the great musical maestro Late Sandhya Mukhopadhyay, in her typical captivating style. The students also sang songs and performed recitations. Dr. Antara Chowdhury, faculty of Bengali department and Smt. Anwesha Dasgupta, faculty of Political Science department also delivered motivational speeches. One of the main attractions was the instrumental performance on Saxophone on the famous songs of Lata ji and sandhya ji by the non teaching employee, Avijit Bakshi. Thus a great tribute was given to Lata Mangeskar, Sandhya Mukherjee and Birju Maharaj. The programme came to an end through an appreciable performance by Smt Moon Moon Ray, faculty of the Music department. The programme was enjoyed by all.

Gender Sensitization and Awareness Programme

The Anti-sexual harassment cell in Collaboration with Anti-Ragging cell of Netaji Satabarshiki Mahavidyalaya organised a Gender sensitization and awareness programme on 29.4.2022 at 12 noon at the F5 room of the college. The resource person was Paromita Datta, Associate Professor, Department of English, Gobardanga Hindu College. The Principal of the college, Dr.

Sudhanath Chattopadhyay inaugurated the programme and delivered a brief but poignant speech on gender issues and the importance of its propagation. This was followed by a short speech by the IQAC Convenor, Dr. Papri Chakrabarti. The programme was hosted by Prof Sukanya Som, Convenor, Anti-sexual harassment cell and Prof Anwesha Dasgupta, Convenor, Anti Ragging Cell. The programme was mainly aimed towards the students who are at an impressionable age and in need of gender awareness for building a better tomorrow. Prof Datta delivered a comprehensive presentation entitled "Looking at Women in Contemporary Bengali Society: A Reappraisal Through Select Films of Aparna Sen." She showed and explained selected portions of the films named 'Parama' and 'Paramitar Akdin' which highlighted gender equity, breaking the shackles of patriarchy and position of women in the contemporary age and also enquired how far we have advanced as a society in terms of awareness and how the future can be shaped through a rise of collective consciousness. The programme was vibrant with active participation and interaction by the teachers and students of 2nd, 4th and 6th semester who turned up in large numbers. At the end of the session, Piu Sutradhar, a student of second semester spoke on awareness on the part of the students especially in the context of our college. The valedictory speech was delivered by Prof Jayanta Rana, Associate Professor, English department. The programme was able to meet its desired intention as the students who thronged the programme were able to relate to one of the glaring lacunae faced by them under various circumstances in today's society, gender discrimination which was shown through audio visual clippings of bengali movies. Here are some of the glimpses of the Gender Sensitization Programme.
